Directions to Transept

Train: Theale Station is served by First Great Western Trains and is on the London-Bedwyn line. Visit www.firstgreatwestern.co.uk for timetables and real-time train running info. Leave platforms via the steps to the road bridge, turn right and walk straight along Station Road for approx 300 meters, beneath the A4 bypass bridge. On reaching mini roundabout by Crown pub, turn right and walk along High Street as far as The Bull pub. Turn left immediately before The Bull into Brewery Court. Follow the approach road round to the right. Transept's office is number 8 and faces the car park barrier. Station to office is about a 10 minute walk.

Bus: Theale village is served by Newbury Buses Vitality 1, linking Reading with Newbury. If coming from Reading, board at Reading Station stop SW and alight at the Brewery Court bus stop in Theale High Street, almost opposite the Bull pub. Follow directions above to reach office. Reading Buses Premier Route 26 also links Reading with Calcot Sainsbury's, about 15-minutes walk east from Theale village. Timetables are available via www.traveline.info or www.reading-buses.co.uk.

Cycle: Theale lies just off Route 4 of the National Cycle Network, providing easy access by bike to our offices. For more information visit the Sustrans website at www.sustrans.org. We provide secure and sheltered cycle parking facilities, please ask on arrival.

Car: From the M4 Junction 12, follow A4 signed to Theale & Newbury. At first roundabout turn right towards Theale village. At first mini roundabout turn left and drive along High Street as far as The Bull pub. Turn right immediately after The Bull into Brewery Court. Follow the approach road round to the right. Transept's office is number 8 and faces the car park barrier. Please note that parking in Brewery Court itself is limited; however there is a visitor space available adjacent to Transept's office.
